

Win a Registered Solid Color Paint

Amity Acres located in Ringtown PA, in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Paint Horse Club is offering any 4-H horse club member the chance to win a Solid color Paint weanling.

Any member interested in participating must meet several criteria. They must have completed their 07- 08 year in the 4-H horse club, and also do one of two things volunteer time to help at one or more of the Pennsylvania Paint Horse Club's 2008 shows, or complete an essay of no less than one page stating why you think you are deserving of a registered Paint horse and what it would mean to you.

The Pennsylvania Paint Horse Club officers will meet in order to choose one or more winners depending on the number of weanling available as determined by Amity Acres.

Please contact Michelle White for any further information on the program or to volunteer your time to the PPHC horse shows at 717-226-1243 or

Mthomas4horse@aol.com

www.pphconline.com

Win a Registered Solid Color Paint

Application

Name: _____

Date: _____

Name of Club: _____

Parents or legal guardians' signature: _____

Leaders' signature of year 07-08 completion: _____

_____ I have completed and attached an essay of no less than one page stating why you think you are deserving of a registered Solid Paint horse and what it would mean to you.

OR

_____ I have committed to volunteering my time to the Pennsylvania Paint Horse Club at one of its shows on May 10th or June 21st.

All applications are due to Michelle White no later than July 25th, 2008.

The winner or winners will then be contacted no later than August 9th, 2008.

Michelle White

2381 Lambs Gap Rd

Enola, PA 17025

717-226-1243

Mthomas4horse@aol.com